DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 51-65 are allowable over the prior art of record.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Applicant has claimed uniquely distinct features in the instant invention which are not found in the prior art either singularly or in combination. They are a method of controlling a display on a display apparatus in response to at-least one or more processing units, comprising: notifying the one of the processing units whether or not the authorization is given; wherein, when a plurality of requests to acquire the same one of the predefined display areas from a plurality of processing units are received, the authorization is provided to only one of the processing units that made one of the requests for acquiring the same one of the predefined display areas. These features are not found or suggested in the prior art.

The closest prior arts, Nason (6,639,613) and Lynch-Freshner (5,668,997) discloses a conventional for client may be notified by the window server in response to certain events occurring with respect to particular windows, such as a configuration change ; either singularly or in combination, fail to anticipate or render the above underline limitation obvious.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
